

Nolan Hopkins is a Junior at TMCC High School and has been playing piano since the age of three. Nolan began learning piano with Christine Barden, coauthor of the Music for Little Mozarts books and music education course. Nolan continues to take private lessons from Barden and is grateful for her mentorship and guidance. In 2022, Nolan won first prize in the Reno Tahoe Piano Competition. He is also a recipient of the Northern Nevada Music Teachers Association (NNMTA) Young Artist Medal. In 2025, he was both the high school division winner and the grand prize winner of the Reno Pops Orchestra Solo and Concerto Festival.
