A snapshot of our 24/25 Season

Saturday concerts are at 7:30 pm
Sunday concerts are at 2:00 pm

A Place For Us

October 19 & 20, 2024

A celebration of what makes a 21st century chamber orchestra, with special showcases for RCO's wind and string sections.

Twenty-Somethings

November 9 & 10, 2024

Works written by composers in their twenties including Debussy's famous Clair de lune and Shostakovich's music for a scandalous production of Hamlet. NCMF's Artistic Director Clive Greensmith is the featured soloist.

Baroque to Beatles

February 1 & 2, 2025

Guest conductor Emily Senturia leads music of the Beatles juxtaposed with beloved works by Vivaldi, Bach, and Handel in Hall Recital Hall.

American Dance Party

March 1 & 2, 2025

The infectious rhythms and tunes of Ellington, Joplin, Gershwin, and Abels will have you dancing in your seats. Eve Allen Garza choreographs the dancing on stage in Bernstein's Fancy Free.

Latin Bridges

April 5 & 6, 2025

Handel's Messiah returns to the RCO in a new Spanish translation alongside works by Gershwin and Piazzolla in a program built upon Latin connections.

Salute to Youth

May 18, 2025

The future is bright with winners of our concerto competition, a side-by-side performance with Reno's young musicians, and a world premiere by Molly Joyce, the first composer in RCO's Sound Investment program.
